

SAPICS CONFERENCE 2010 – STUDENT INITIATIVE

SAPICS, The Association for Operations Management in Southern Africa would like to extend an invitation to all students of Universities & Technikons within areas of study related to Supply Chain and Operations Management in South Africa to participate in the SAPICS 2010 Conference Student Initiative. The 2009 conference initiative was very successful and as such we look forward to the participation of a host of new students for 2010.

What is it all about?

SAPICS has made available the opportunity for 10 students to attend the SAPICS Conference which will be taking place at Sun City from 25th -28th July 2010

The opportunity would include:

- Attendance of workshops on afternoon of Sunday 25th July (provided space is still available)
- Attendance of the Exhibition opening on evening of Sunday 25th July
- One night's accommodation at the Sundown Ranch Sunday 25th July
- Attendance of Conference opening on Monday 26th July
- Attendance of all presentations on Monday 26th July

Excludes transport to & from Sun City & between Sun City & Sundown Ranch

The SAPICS Conference which is the leading event for Supply chain and operations management professionals in Southern Africa will offer the successful students an opportunity to experience:

- A programme of world class speakers
- An exhibition of 50 organisations who will share valuable information on products and services at the cutting edge of the profession.
- Access to a programme of world class case studies
- Specific sessions on Business performance and technology enablement
- Extensive networking opportunities with industry professionals

How to participate

To secure your chance of being the successful student to attend this world class event and experience the knowledge and networking event of the year for Supply Chain and Operations Management professionals. All you need to do is submit a précis of no more than 400 words on the 2010 World Cup and how you believe it will impact on Supply Chain and Operations Management in South Africa for the duration of the tournament. Your submission should reach SAPICS for the attention of Tonya Parker by no later than the 25TH June 2010.

Email: tonya@sapics.org.za or Fax: 086 663 8464 or snail mail: P O Box 14080, Vorna Valley, 1686

About the Student
First Name
Surname
Identity Number
	Race	<input type="checkbox"/> African	<input type="checkbox"/> White	<input type="checkbox"/> Coloured	<input type="checkbox"/> Asian		Gender	<input type="checkbox"/> Male	<input type="checkbox"/> Female
Institution (place of study)
Faculty
Area of study or Qualification
Contact Information
Tel Number
Cell Number
Fax Number
Email Address
P O Box Address
Contact details for Lecturer or program manager
First Name
Surname
Relation to student
Tel Number
Cell Number
Email

2010 World Cup and the impact on Supply Chain & Operations Management in South Africa

