

Supply Chain Education Excellence Awards

Call for Nominations

Are you or your organization committed to educating your employees in Supply Chain Management?

Have you participated and achieved in Supply Chain Management Education?

Do you deserve to be recognized and praised for your efforts or know someone who should?

If so, we want you, or your nominations, for the 2012 Supply Chain Education Excellence Awards.

We all know that there is a massive skills shortage in our country. Operations Management is a profession which requires an enormous amount of skills development. SAPICS strives to develop an expanded sense of responsibility for the education needs of our profession and by hosting the Supply Chain Education Excellence Awards each year we hope to offer recognition for the individuals and organisations sharing our passion and commitment in educating this profession.

By recognising those who have achieved in 2011 we create role models for our colleagues for the future. We welcome your nominations.

This prestigious event, now in its 6th Year, will be held on the 19th April 2012 at The Venue, Melrose Arch, where Supply Chain Education Excellence will be recognised in style.

Nominations are sought in a number of categories, and will be adjudicated based on performance, sustainability, success and innovation.
